Psa 103:2 Bless the LORD, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits,

Psa 103:3 who forgives all your iniquity, who heals all your diseases,

Psa 103:4 who redeems your life from the pit, who crowns you with steadfast love and mercy,

Psa 103:5 who satisfies you with good so that your youth is renewed like the eagle's.

Psa 103:11 For as high as the heavens are above the earth, so great is his steadfast love toward those who fear him;

Psa 103:12 as far as the east is from the west, so far does he remove our transgressions from us.

Psa 103:13 As a father shows compassion to his children, so the LORD shows compassion to those who fear him.

Psa 103:14 For he knows our frame; he remembers that we are dust.

Psa 103:15 As for man, his days are like grass; he flourishes like a flower of the field;

Psa 103:16 for the wind passes over it, and it is gone, and its place knows it no more.

Psa 104:8 The mountains rose, the valleys sank down to the place that you appointed for them.

Psa 104:9 You set a boundary that they may not pass, so that they might not again cover the earth.

Psa 104:10 You make springs gush forth in the valleys; they flow between the hills;

Psa 104:11 they give drink to every beast of the field; the wild donkeys quench their thirst.

New Testament

Rom 14:1 As for the one who is weak in faith, welcome him, but not to quarrel over opinions.

Rom 14:2 One person believes he may eat anything, while the weak person eats only vegetables.

Rom 14:3 Let not the one who eats despise the one who abstains, and let not the one who abstains pass judgment on the one who eats, for God has welcomed him.

Rom 14:4 Who are you to pass judgment on the servant of another? It is before his own master that he stands or falls. And he will be upheld, for the Lord is able to make him stand.

Rom 14:5 One person esteems one day as better than another, while another esteems all days alike. Each one should be fully convinced in his own mind.

Rom 14:6 The one who observes the day, observes it in honor of the Lord. The one who eats, eats in honor of the Lord, since he gives thanks to God, while the one who abstains, abstains in honor of the Lord and gives thanks to God.

Rom 14:7 For none of us lives to himself, and none of us dies to himself.

Rom 14:8 For if we live, we live to the Lord, and if we die, we die to the Lord. So then, whether we live or whether we die, we are the Lord's.

Rom 14:9 For to this end Christ died and lived again, that he might be Lord both of the dead and of the living.

Rom 14:10 Why do you pass judgment on your brother? Or you, why do you despise your brother? For we will all stand before the judgment seat of God;

Rom 14:11 for it is written, "As I live, says the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall confess to God."

Rom 14:12 So then each of us will give an account of himself to God.

Rom 14:13 Therefore let us not pass judgment on one another any longer, but rather decide never to put a stumbling block or hindrance in the way of a brother.

Rom 14:14 I know and am persuaded in the Lord Jesus that nothing is unclean in itself, but it is unclean for anyone who thinks it unclean.

Rom 14:15 For if your brother is grieved by what you eat, you are no longer walking in love. By what you eat, do not destroy the one for whom Christ died.

Rom 14:16 So do not let what you regard as good be spoken of as evil.

Rom 14:17 For the kingdom of God is not a matter of eating and drinking but of righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Spirit.

Rom 14:18 Whoever thus serves Christ is acceptable to God and approved by men.

Rom 14:19 So then let us pursue what makes for peace and for mutual upbuilding.

Rom 14:20 Do not, for the sake of food, destroy the work of God. Everything is indeed clean, but it is wrong for anyone to make another stumble by what he eats.

Rom 14:21 It is good not to eat meat or drink wine or do anything that causes your brother to stumble.

Rom 14:22 The faith that you have, keep between yourself and God. Blessed is the one who has no reason to pass judgment on himself for what he approves.

Rom 14:23 But whoever has doubts is condemned if he eats, because the eating is not from faith. For whatever does not proceed from faith is sin.
