

Old Testament

Psa 75:1 To the choirmaster: according to Do Not Destroy. A Psalm of Asaph. A Song. We give thanks to you, O God; we give thanks, for your name is near. We recount your wondrous deeds.

Psa 75:2 "At the set time that I appoint I will judge with equity.

Psa 75:3 When the earth totters, and all its inhabitants, it is I who keep steady its pillars. Selah

Psa 75:4 I say to the boastful, 'Do not boast,' and to the wicked, 'Do not lift up your horn;

Psa 75:5 do not lift up your horn on high, or speak with haughty neck."

Psa 75:6 For not from the east or from the west and not from the wilderness comes lifting up,

Psa 75:7 but it is God who executes judgment, putting down one and lifting up another.

Psa 75:8 For in the hand of the LORD there is a cup with foaming wine, well mixed, and he pours out from it, and all the wicked of the earth shall drain it down to the dregs.

Psa 75:9 But I will declare it forever; I will sing praises to the God of Jacob.

Psa 75:10 All the horns of the wicked I will cut off, but the horns of the righteous shall be lifted up.

Psa 76:1 To the choirmaster: with stringed instruments. A Psalm of Asaph. A Song. In Judah God is known; his name is great in Israel.

Psa 76:2 His abode has been established in Salem, his dwelling place in Zion.

Psa 76:3 There he broke the flashing arrows, the shield, the sword, and the weapons of war. Selah

Psa 76:4 Glorious are you, more majestic than the mountains of prey.

Psa 76:5 The stouthearted were stripped of their spoil; they sank into sleep; all the men of war were unable to use their hands.

Psa 76:6 At your rebuke, O God of Jacob, both rider and horse lay stunned.

Psa 76:7 But you, you are to be feared! Who can stand before you when once your anger is roused?

Psa 76:8 From the heavens you uttered judgment; the earth feared and was still,

Psa 76:9 when God arose to establish judgment, to save all the humble of the earth. Selah

Psa 76:10 Surely the wrath of man shall praise you; the remnant of wrath you will put on like a belt.

Psa 76:11 Make your vows to the LORD your God and perform them; let all around him bring gifts to him who is to be feared,

Psa 76:12 who cuts off the spirit of princes, who is to be feared by the kings of the earth.

Psa 77:1 To the choirmaster: according to Jeduthun. A Psalm of Asaph. I cry aloud to God, aloud to God, and he will hear me.

Psa 77:2 In the day of my trouble I seek the Lord; in the night my hand is stretched out without wearying; my soul refuses to be comforted.

Psa 77:3 When I remember God, I moan; when I meditate, my spirit faints. Selah

Psa 77:4 You hold my eyelids open; I am so troubled that I cannot speak.

Psa 77:5 I consider the days of old, the years long ago.

Psa 77:6 I said, "Let me remember my song in the night; let me meditate in my heart." Then my spirit made a diligent search:

Psa 77:7 "Will the Lord spurn forever, and never again be favorable?

Psa 77:8 Has his steadfast love forever ceased? Are his promises at an end for all time?

Psa 77:9 Has God forgotten to be gracious? Has he in anger shut up his compassion?" Selah

Psa 77:10 Then I said, "I will appeal to this, to the years of the right hand of the Most High."
Psa 77:11 I will remember the deeds of the LORD; yes, I will remember your wonders of old.
Psa 77:12 I will ponder all your work, and meditate on your mighty deeds.
Psa 77:13 Your way, O God, is holy. What god is great like our God?
Psa 77:14 You are the God who works wonders; you have made known your might among the peoples.
Psa 77:15 You with your arm redeemed your people, the children of Jacob and Joseph. Selah
Psa 77:16 When the waters saw you, O God, when the waters saw you, they were afraid; indeed, the deep trembled.
Psa 77:17 The clouds poured out water; the skies gave forth thunder; your arrows flashed on every side.
Psa 77:18 The crash of your thunder was in the whirlwind; your lightnings lighted up the world; the earth trembled and shook.
Psa 77:19 Your way was through the sea, your path through the great waters; yet your footprints were unseen.
Psa 77:20 You led your people like a flock by the hand of Moses and Aaron.

New Testament

Rom 6:1 What shall we say then? Are we to continue in sin that grace may abound?
Rom 6:2 By no means! How can we who died to sin still live in it?
Rom 6:3 Do you not know that all of us who have been baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death?
Rom 6:4 We were buried therefore with him by baptism into death, in order that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might walk in newness of life.
Rom 6:5 For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we shall certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his.
Rom 6:6 We know that our old self was crucified with him in order that the body of sin might be brought to nothing, so that we would no longer be enslaved to sin.
Rom 6:7 For one who has died has been set free from sin.
Rom 6:8 Now if we have died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him.
Rom 6:9 We know that Christ, being raised from the dead, will never die again; death no longer has dominion over him.
Rom 6:10 For the death he died he died to sin, once for all, but the life he lives he lives to God.
Rom 6:11 So you also must consider yourselves dead to sin and alive to God in Christ Jesus.
Rom 6:12 Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal body, to make you obey its passions.
Rom 6:13 Do not present your members to sin as instruments for unrighteousness, but present yourselves to God as those who have been brought from death to life, and your members to God as instruments for righteousness.
Rom 6:14 For sin will have no dominion over you, since you are not under law but under grace.
Rom 6:15 What then? Are we to sin because we are not under law but under grace? By no means!
Rom 6:16 Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness?
Rom 6:17 But thanks be to God, that you who were once slaves of sin have become obedient from the heart to the standard of teaching to which you were committed,
Rom 6:18 and, having been set free from sin, have become slaves of righteousness.
Rom 6:19 I am speaking in human terms, because of your natural limitations. For just as you once presented your members as slaves to impurity and to lawlessness leading to more lawlessness, so now present your members as slaves to righteousness leading to sanctification.

Rom 6:20 For when you were slaves of sin, you were free in regard to righteousness.

Rom 6:21 But what fruit were you getting at that time from the things of which you are now ashamed? For the end of those things is death.

Rom 6:22 But now that you have been set free from sin and have become slaves of God, the fruit you get leads to sanctification and its end, eternal life.

Rom 6:23 For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.
