

Old Testament

Psa 62:1 To the choirmaster: according to Jeduthun. A Psalm of David. For God alone my soul waits in silence; from him comes my salvation.

Psa 62:2 He only is my rock and my salvation, my fortress; I shall not be greatly shaken.

Psa 62:3 How long will all of you attack a man to batter him, like a leaning wall, a tottering fence?

Psa 62:4 They only plan to thrust him down from his high position. They take pleasure in falsehood. They bless with their mouths, but inwardly they curse. Selah

Psa 62:5 For God alone, O my soul, wait in silence, for my hope is from him.

Psa 62:6 He only is my rock and my salvation, my fortress; I shall not be shaken.

Psa 62:7 On God rests my salvation and my glory; my mighty rock, my refuge is God.

Psa 62:8 Trust in him at all times, O people; pour out your heart before him; God is a refuge for us. Selah

Psa 62:9 Those of low estate are but a breath; those of high estate are a delusion; in the balances they go up; they are together lighter than a breath.

Psa 62:10 Put no trust in extortion; set no vain hopes on robbery; if riches increase, set not your heart on them.

Psa 62:11 Once God has spoken; twice have I heard this: that power belongs to God,

Psa 62:12 and that to you, O Lord, belongs steadfast love. For you will render to a man according to his work.

Psa 63:1 A Psalm of David, when he was in the wilderness of Judah. O God, you are my God; earnestly I seek you; my soul thirsts for you; my flesh faints for you, as in a dry and weary land where there is no water.

Psa 63:2 So I have looked upon you in the sanctuary, beholding your power and glory.

Psa 63:3 Because your steadfast love is better than life, my lips will praise you.

Psa 63:4 So I will bless you as long as I live; in your name I will lift up my hands.

Psa 63:5 My soul will be satisfied as with fat and rich food, and my mouth will praise you with joyful lips,

Psa 63:6 when I remember you upon my bed, and meditate on you in the watches of the night;

Psa 63:7 for you have been my help, and in the shadow of your wings I will sing for joy.

Psa 63:8 My soul clings to you; your right hand upholds me.

Psa 63:9 But those who seek to destroy my life shall go down into the depths of the earth;

Psa 63:10 they shall be given over to the power of the sword; they shall be a portion for jackals.

Psa 63:11 But the king shall rejoice in God; all who swear by him shall exult, for the mouths of liars will be stopped.

Psa 64:1 To the choirmaster. A Psalm of David. Hear my voice, O God, in my complaint; preserve my life from dread of the enemy.

Psa 64:2 Hide me from the secret plots of the wicked, from the throng of evildoers,

Psa 64:3 who whet their tongues like swords, who aim bitter words like arrows,

Psa 64:4 shooting from ambush at the blameless, shooting at him suddenly and without fear.

Psa 64:5 They hold fast to their evil purpose; they talk of laying snares secretly, thinking, "Who can see them?"

Psa 64:6 They search out injustice, saying, "We have accomplished a diligent search." For the inward mind and heart of a man are deep!

Psa 64:7 But God shoots his arrow at them; they are wounded suddenly.

Psa 64:8 They are brought to ruin, with their own tongues turned against them; all who see them will wag their heads.

Psa 64:9 Then all mankind fears; they tell what God has brought about and ponder what he has done.

Psa 64:10 Let the righteous one rejoice in the LORD and take refuge in him! Let all the upright in heart exult!

New Testament

Rom 1:1 Paul, a servant of Christ Jesus, called to be an apostle, set apart for the gospel of God,

Rom 1:2 which he promised beforehand through his prophets in the holy Scriptures,

Rom 1:3 concerning his Son, who was descended from David according to the flesh

Rom 1:4 and was declared to be the Son of God in power according to the Spirit of holiness by his resurrection from the dead, Jesus Christ our Lord,

Rom 1:5 through whom we have received grace and apostleship to bring about the obedience of faith for the sake of his name among all the nations,

Rom 1:6 including you who are called to belong to Jesus Christ,

Rom 1:7 To all those in Rome who are loved by God and called to be saints: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Rom 1:8 First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for all of you, because your faith is proclaimed in all the world.

Rom 1:9 For God is my witness, whom I serve with my spirit in the gospel of his Son, that without ceasing I mention you

Rom 1:10 always in my prayers, asking that somehow by God's will I may now at last succeed in coming to you.

Rom 1:11 For I long to see you, that I may impart to you some spiritual gift to strengthen you--

Rom 1:12 that is, that we may be mutually encouraged by each other's faith, both yours and mine.

Rom 1:13 I want you to know, brothers, that I have often intended to come to you (but thus far have been prevented), in order that I may reap some harvest among you as well as among the rest of the Gentiles.

Rom 1:14 I am under obligation both to Greeks and to barbarians, both to the wise and to the foolish.

Rom 1:15 So I am eager to preach the gospel to you also who are in Rome.

Rom 1:16 For I am not ashamed of the gospel, for it is the power of God for salvation to everyone who believes, to the Jew first and also to the Greek.

Rom 1:17 For in it the righteousness of God is revealed from faith for faith, as it is written, "The righteous shall live by faith."

Rom 1:18 For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who by their unrighteousness suppress the truth.

Rom 1:19 For what can be known about God is plain to them, because God has shown it to them.

Rom 1:20 For his invisible attributes, namely, his eternal power and divine nature, have been clearly perceived, ever since the creation of the world, in the things that have been made. So they are without excuse.

Rom 1:21 For although they knew God, they did not honor him as God or give thanks to him, but they became futile in their thinking, and their foolish hearts were darkened.

Rom 1:22 Claiming to be wise, they became fools,

Rom 1:23 and exchanged the glory of the immortal God for images resembling mortal man and birds and animals and creeping things.

Rom 1:24 Therefore God gave them up in the lusts of their hearts to impurity, to the dishonoring of their bodies among themselves,
Rom 1:25 because they exchanged the truth about God for a lie and worshiped and served the creature rather than the Creator, who is blessed forever! Amen.
Rom 1:26 For this reason God gave them up to dishonorable passions. For their women exchanged natural relations for those that are contrary to nature;
Rom 1:27 and the men likewise gave up natural relations with women and were consumed with passion for one another, men committing shameless acts with men and receiving in themselves the due penalty for their error.
Rom 1:28 And since they did not see fit to acknowledge God, God gave them up to a debased mind to do what ought not to be done.
Rom 1:29 They were filled with all manner of unrighteousness, evil, covetousness, malice. They are full of envy, murder, strife, deceit, maliciousness. They are gossips,
Rom 1:30 slanderers, haters of God, insolent, haughty, boastful, inventors of evil, disobedient to parents,
Rom 1:31 foolish, faithless, heartless, ruthless.
Rom 1:32 Though they know God's decree that those who practice such things deserve to die, they not only do them but give approval to those who practice them.
